A FUN FILLED FAMILY SHOW

Chairmans Address

Welcome

It is with great pleasure that once again I welcome you all to our annual Pantomime; it is hard to believe that 12 months have passed since we were here last.

It is my privilege to be Chairman of such a talented and dedicated group of people who give of their time to be part of the Killorglin Panto. It requires a large group of people to put on a show like Long John Silver. There are cast, chorus, musicians, children's chorus, lighting people, sound engineers, back stage crew, front of house crew, makeup crew, catering crew, costumes and these are only the people who are involved on the night. To get the show to the stage requires another army of people. We have painters, carpenters, plumbers, typists, printers, dress makers, sewing machine operators, transport, programme and ticket designers.

All of these people swing into action to get the show on the road but none of this would happen if it were not for the dedication of one man and that man is Mr. Panto (or should that be Dame) Declan Mangan. Declan as you know has been involved with all of our Pantomime's to date and this is number Forty Nine (49) his enthusiasm for the panto is just as strong now as it was for the first show all those years back. When Long John Silver is put to bed in February it will be down to work for our 50th Production.

I would also like to pay tribute to you our audiences who turn up year on year in good weather and bad to give us your support it is greatly appreciated.

Enough said switch of your mobile phone sit back relax and enjoy the show.

Dames Diary

A well known show song goes "another opening, another show", it could very well be written as "another year, another Panto!" Last October, as we began rehearsals, the familiar faces turned up and I was delighted to see we had a good smattering of new faces as well. This is very encouraging because without new blood, the Panto group would decrease in size and enthusiasm, but the newcomers puts a spring in everyone's step, and the future looks secure for a few more years yet.

Long John Silver is a reworking of "Treasure Island" which we did in 1986. Is it really 26 years ago - time flies when you are having fun.

It is exciting to welcome back Finbarr Coffey to the title role, Finbarr's voice and stage presence guarantees a certain hit show. I'm Dame Hawkins and my niece Renee Kavanagh plays my son Jim! And if that's difficult to figure out, the versatile comedienne Hazel Devane gives a memorable funny performance as my "beau" Squire Trewlaney. Enough to confuse any man/woman! The comic duo of Hans and Nees (Aidan Clifford and Ger O Connor) are in sparkling form but meet their match in Buttercup and Daisy (Sinead Pigott and Maura Moriarty). The ever steady John McGeever is Captain Smolett, and his former side-kick Colm Clifford (last year's Kermit) does an excellent take off of Michael D. in the role of Ben Gunn. Newcomer Kieran Flynn is the mysterious Captain Bones, who meets its match in the frightening Blind Pew (Lisa Corkery). Special thanks to Sean Joy who was a valuable understudy at all the rehearsals.

After many years in the chorus, Morgan O Sullivan takes on the funny role of the Island

Chief, and newcomer Danielle O Riordan is sure to win many fans in the role of the Princess.

Our excellent choreographer, Jackie O Mahony, as well as having the dancers in superb shape, also plays the female romantic lead who has an eye on Jim. Thanks Jackie for a wonderful contribution.

We are delighted to welcome back Mick Jones as our invaluable Musical Director. As well as having the chorus in splendid voice, Mick also wrote the lyrics for two of the songs in the show and has done Trojan work with the Principals and Orchestra.

A huge thanks to Paul Walker and his crew and our superb Artistic Director Nikki Roberts. Once again our costumiere extraordinaire, Anne Mangan, has come up trumps. I said to Anne that we could reuse the costumes from 1986. Would she agree? Oh no she wouldn't and once again she has put her amazing design and creative skills to stunning effect. May she never stop!!

My thanks to everyone involved in getting our 49th panto on stage, it would be impossible without your wonderful commitment and enthusiasm. I'm looking forward to the 50th already.

PANTOFRIENDS

We remember special friends who have gone before us especially Joyce Ashe, Paddy Corcoarn, James Coffey, Eanna Curtayne & John
Purcell, who passed away during the year. Not forgetting Siobhan
Cotter, Brendan Cronin, Theresa Foley, Eileen Hayes, Kevin Melia, Pauline Moroney, Frank 'Maxi' McMahon, Mike O'Donnell & Rhetta O'Shea, they all have a special place in our hearts particularly during Panto time.

Killorglin Panto celebrates its 50th Panto in 2013

Established as Kerry's if not Munster's longest running pantomime the group looks forward to celebrating it's 50th anniversary in 2013. A special committee has been set up to look at how best to mark this milestone. If you have any suggestions or memorabilia we would love to hear from you.
