CHAIRMAN'S

ADDRESS

Welcome

It is hard to believe that 12 months have passed since we were here last. But yes folks Panto Time is here again. I would like to say a special thank you to our former Chairman Declan Mangan who has relinquished the chain of office this year to myself and it will be a challenge to fill his boots. It is indeed a privilege to be part of a very special group of people who give their time freely every year to Killorglin Panto and only for their dedication, none of this would happen.

Getting the show to stage involves a lot of hard work, the long evenings of rehearsals and many links in the teamwork such as backstage crew, front of house, make up, cast, musicians, chorus, lighting crew, sound engineers, catering, costumes, painters, carpenters, transport managers, health and safety and many more too numerous to mention. If it were not for the dedication of this team, Panto would not be the success it is today. Of course none of this would be possible if it were not for the dedication of one man, Mr. Panto himself, Declan Mangan who is the life blood of the show.

To you our audience a special thank you for your support down through the years. You have also played your part turning up every year in good weather and bad and it is greatly appreciated. I would also like to pay a special thank you to three former stalwarts of Panto for many years, Marion Madden, Paul Walker and Theresa McMahan for their outstanding loyalty and dedication to Panto. We also remember at this time past members and friends who have gone to their eternal reward.

So mobiles off, fasten your seat belts and lets have lift off for Panto 2015: 'Jack and the Beanstalk'.

Tommy O'Riordan - Chairman

DAME'S DIARY

Oh yes, we are back again. The annual 'miracle', Killorglin Panto, is lighting up the post-Christmas feeling for the 52nd year. The fact that this extravaganza of music, dancing, costume-fest and ever popular fairy tale story-line still happens, is a tribute to all who love to get involved in a community based, fun-loving project, where the every day worries of life can be put aside, as we wander into Never Never Land. Is it getting more popular? Oh yes it is. This year we have our biggest number ever taking to the stage. Over 30 ladies and 20 men and 30 children. I hope there will be as many in the audience!!

We first did Jack and the Beanstalk in 1971. The world was a completely different place then - computers, mobile phones, ipads etc were unheard of and TV was one station in black and white!! It's nice to see that 44 years later, the appeal of Pantomime is as strong as ever. The child in all of us needs a chance to break out - at least once a year.

My thanks to all who have worked so tirelessly and selflessly to make this show happen. We have several new faces in our cast-whilest we miss a lot of familiar faces, it is good to see new blood treading the boards like veterans. A special welcome to our new Chairman, Tommy O Riordan and Stage Manager, David Pigott. We must also acknowledge and thank our former treasurer, Marian Madden for the watchful eye she kept on our purse strings for 40 years, and Paul Walker who has retired as Stage Manager, but thankfully is still fully involved backstage. And to Theresa McMahon who has been an invaluable helper for over 30 years. Killorglin Panto would not be the success it is without the extraordinary creative talent and costume making skills of Anne Mangan. She still makes our show fit for Broadway, thank you Anne.

Read the piece on 'The Secret Millionaire' and come up with the answer before the end of the show, and above all - will you enjoy the show? Oh yes you will.

The Secret Millionaire

Some months ago, one of our cast had the good fortune to win over 50 million in the Euro Lotto. The winner has decided to visit the village of Boravia 'incognito', assess the needs of any individual or group-cause that might need a helping hand, and at the end, distribute huge cash rewards to the 'worthy' causes.

We invite you to guess the identity of our 'SECRET MILLIONAIRE', (it could be a 'he' or a 'she') and we will test your guessing powers before the end of the show. Good luck.

Panto Friends

Tommy Houlihan - Little did we realise that when we staged 'Puss in Boots' last year, it would be the final show for our long time supporter, colleague and friend, Tommy Houlihan. Every year he would present us with details of rehearsals, visits to the CY, dates of the following year's show and was always present beside our drummer in the orchestra pit. Tommy was a beloved mascot for all the group and, sadly, he has gone to star in a brighter stage, where no doubt, he will make himself fully at home.
Ar dheis Dé go raibh a anam uasal.

We also remember all former members who have left us for the bigger stage in heaven especially Helena Joy who passed away since the curtain went up on our last panto

Years of Service Awards

Each year the group acknowledges those who have given invaluable years of service to Pantomime. This year the following will be receiving their presentations at the annual social night in Nicks on March 14th.

12 Years Service: Sinead Pigott,
Dolores Foley & Geraldine Foyle
20 Years Service: Susan Joy
